

MANAMA: The Bahrain Development Bank's (BDB) contribution to funding small and medium enterprises (SMEs) since the start of 2018 would help in creating more than 3,000 jobs, the chief of the entrepreneurship finance organisation told the Bahrain India Society (BIS) during a luncheon seminar held at the Capital Club Bahrain. The event saw BDB chief executive Sanjeev Paul talk about various shifts taking over the market and how the kingdom could benefit from capitalising on these changes .
